

Forbes

Forbes
com
U.S. EUROPE ASIA

FROM FORBES 400 ISSUE

Steve Forbes, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Fact and Comment

"With all thy getting get understanding."

Restaurants: Go, Consider, Stop

Edible enlightenment from our eatery experts and colleagues Richard Nalley, Monie Begley and Chef Jeff Lamperti, as well as brothers Bob, Kip and Tim.

● The Roof at Aretsky's Patroon

160 East 46th St. (Tel.: 212-883-7373)

Dazzling, expansive roof-space addition (to be enclosed in fall/winter) with a 35-foot zinc bar, a giant overhead fan, banquettes along the walls and high-top tables scattered about. Perfect spot for cocktailing and such light snacks as Angus beef sliders, Monte Cristo brioche bites, a basket of pigs in a blanket or a Maine lobster roll.

● The Roof at Aretsky's Patroon

160 East 46th St. (Tel.: 212-883-7373)

Dazzling, expansive roof-space addition (to be enclosed in fall/winter) with a 35-foot zinc bar, a giant overhead fan, banquettes along the walls and high-top tables scattered about. Perfect spot for cocktailing and such light snacks as Angus beef sliders, Monte Cristo brioche bites, a basket of pigs in a blanket or a Maine lobster roll.

● Highlands

150 West 10th St. (Tel.: 212-229-2670)

Scottish-themed emporium with a publike atmosphere. Delicious

Article Controls

✉ EMAIL

🖨️ PRINT

🔄 REPRINT